Houses for Fishermen

1696. SHRI V. KISHORE CHANDRA S. DEO: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any scheme for making available houses for fishermen;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether Government would take prompt action on representations received in this regard from NGOs and social workers, etc.; and

(d) the time frame required for processing such applications?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI SOMPAL): (a) and (b) Yes Sir. The Development of Model Fishermen Villages Component of the National Welfare of Fishermen scheme provides for construction of houses for fishermen at a cost not exceeding Rs. 35,000/- per house. The cost of construction is shared equally by the Central Government and the State Government. In the case of Union Territories, the entire cost of construction is met by the Central Government.

(c) and (d) Since selection of villages for construction of houses as well as construction of houses under the scheme is the responsibility of the State Government, any representation received either from NGOs or social workers in this regard is immediately forwarded to the State Government for prompt action. No time frame has been prescribed for processing such applications.
